

Join Sage City Live roundtable host: Clyde Harris

Located in Scarborough (Toronto), Ontario, Canada, Clyde Harris is the principal co-owner of Alwyn Enterprises along with his wife, Joan Chinnery. With more than 30 years of experience as bookkeepers for charities and small businesses, together they offer complete bookkeeping services to companies that include small manufacturers and building contractors, clothing stores, and service professionals, as well as nonprofit organizations.

A member of the Sage Accountants Network and a Sage 50 Accounting—Canadian Edition Premier Advisor, for the past 15 years Clyde also hosts a workshop three times a year for church treasurers to help them keep up to date on both government and charity compliance issues.

While enjoying the work associated with Alwyn Enterprises, Clyde also spends significant hours in volunteer endeavors, including with Scouts Canada, where he recently completed a second term as an area commissioner. He has held several leadership roles and has more than 45 years as an adult leader volunteer. In 2010 Clyde was honored by Scouts Canada with the presentation of the Silver Acorn Medal for especially distinguished service to Scouting, and in 2011 Clyde received the Honourary Member Award for long and distinguished service to Scouting in Toronto.
